Chapter 1 by RoseWriter

Horrible kids... What did he do to deserve that?

I looked upon the clump of people surrounding a boy as they poured his drink into the boy's hat and put the sopping mess onto his head.

My eyes widened as I gazed across the street from my perch on the old evergreen tree."Hey! Leave him alone!" I called out to them.

They turned to look at me as I climbed down the branches skillfully. They looked to me then to each other before bursting out into laughter.

I motioned for the boy to run and he did exactly that.

What will happen now? I looked back and they had stopped laughing.

Oh no...
